

Gilli mobile is a revolutionary new way to search and view full property details on your mobile phone. On holiday, sitting on the train, or even standing beside an Gilli sale or lettings board outside one of our properties...

Now with Gilli Mobile, if you have a mobile phone or handheld PDA with Internet access you can visit www.gilli.co.uk and search our entire property database in real-time. View full property details including colour photos, floor plans, location map and comprehensive room descriptions including dimensions all on your mobile phone.

Searching for a new home has never been easier - you can search from anywhere, at any time, to view the latest listings and jumpstart your home buying or renting process.

Also, for vendors and landlords, with Gilli estate agent bringing its website to the mobile frontier, your property details are now twice as accessible to consumers looking to move home.
