

Looking to rent your home? Maybe you just want to find out how much your property is worth or the estimated rental your property could achieve. Why not take advantage of our free valuation service?

We offer two services:

Telephone market appraisal

One of our experienced property consultants will call you to discuss the local market conditions and give you an indication of how much your home is worth or what you could rent it out for.

Visit valuation

An Gilli specialist manager will visit you at the property to conduct a free, no-obligation valuation of your property or the estimated rental valuation.

To arrange a free valuation either:
