

"My Gilli" also provides sellers and with up-to-the-minute marketing and viewing information on their properties and the latest offers.

Register once only

Only provide your details once no matter how many functions you use, so if you are looking to buy or rent you don't need to register all over again. Update your contact details in a single account.

Free Market Valuation

Complete the Market Valuation form with the details of the house you wish to have valued, and we will arrange an appointment with you.

Change Password

Make your password more memorable.

Track your property sale

Within your "My Gilli" account you can check the status of your properties for sale and view all offers as they come in real-time. Print offer letters for your reference.

See how viewings of property

Within your "My Gilli" account you can see in real-time how many viewings we have done on your property on the number of forthcoming viewings booked.

See how we are marketing your property

Within your 'My Gilli' account you can see in real-time how we are marketing your property. How many matched applicants we have, how many emails and text messages we have sent out. The number of views we have done on the website and even the number of times we have shown your property on our large plasma screens in our shop window.

504 4445 For a free property valuation call 0844
or click here to register online