Property Particulars

Every effort has been undertaken to ensure the detail and measurements within our particulars are accurate. However, it should be noted that they are approximate and are only a general guide to the property. Property particulars are produced in accordance to the Property Misdescriptions Act (1991) and should not be construed as a contract or offer. Detail shown (if applicable) regarding lease detail, service charges, ground rent, photos and distances cannot be guaranteed fully accurate and so a solicitor should check and confirm prior to contract.
